Country fares for Adelaide Hills Country fares apply to travel in the Adelaide Hills beyond the Adelaide Metro fare boundary. Different fares are charged for different journey lengths, as well as for Concession Holders and children. View the SouthLink fares and country services. For more information, phone LinkSA on 8339 7544. Popular fares A convenient A4 print-out (PDF 86kB) displaying the most popular range of fares is also available for download and print. Rules for travel When travelling on any Adelaide Metro bus, train or tram, a fine may apply if you do not: Travel without validating your metroCARD or ticket each time you board any of our services or enter/exit applicable barrier gates Travel with your valid proof of entitlement and do not purchase a Regular fare ticket A standard fine of $220 applies with a maximum penalty of $1,250. More information See our FAQ page for more information on Adelaide Metro products and services. Reduced fares are available for riders who are 65 or older or riders who have qualifying disabilities. The reduced fare is half the base fare. (For example, the base fare for subways and local buses is $2.75, so the reduced fare is $1.35.) Your reduced-fare card will have your name and photo on it. If you don't have your card with you, you can pay the reduced fare in cash. Insert your reduced-fare card into the MetroCard machine in stations. Refill it the way you normally would. When you get your card back, you can swipe it as usual and the reduced fare will be automatically applied. Note: Because of the coronavirus pandemic, we are not making reduced-fare card transactions at most station booths. Sign up to have your reduced-fare card refilled automatically. Details are below, under other options for paying the reduced fare. You can also call us if you need help. See how to get help with EasyPay. Only a few station booths are making reduced-fare transactions. You can visit these locations. You can submit an application by mail or in person. See how to apply. On the subway and on local buses: Anytime On express buses: Anytime except weekday rush hours, from 6-10 a.m. and 3-7 p.m. On the Long Island Rail Road and Metro-North: Anytime except weekday morning rush hours to NYC terminals, from 6-10 a.m. How to pay with cash You must already be part of the reduced fare program and have valid photo ID with you. Accepted forms of ID: A valid driver's license from any state (or legal equivalent issued to nondrivers) A valid passport from any country A NYC Department of Aging ID card A Medicare card An Access-A-Ride ID card or an MTA Reduced-Fare ID card (pre-1995) Paying with cash on the bus Show your ID to the operator and pay $1.35 in coins, exact change. No pennies or bills are accepted. You can request a transfer from the operator. The transfer can be used on local buses only, within two hours. It cannot be used for the subway or express buses. Set up automatic refills with EasyPay Use our EasyPay program to link a credit or debit card to your MetroCard. Your card will be refilled automatically. You can use a pre-tax transportation benefit card with EasyPay. Setting up refills for pay-per-ride cards: Apply for a Reduced-Fare MetroCard. When you're applying, you can sign up for an EasyPay option. When you create your EasyPay account, you'll link a credit or debit card. You start your account with $10. Your card will automatically refill when the balance falls below $10. (You can set a higher refill amount if you would like.) Setting up refills for unlimited cards: Follow the steps above to apply for a reduced-fare card and set up an EasyPay account. Set your refill balance to $63.50. Your card automatically converts to an Unlimited Ride Card when you spend more than $63.50 in a 30-day period. Trips on subways and local buses will be free until the next billing cycle. At the end of the 30-day period, your card reverts back to Pay-Per-Ride. Trips on Express buses do not count towards the unlimited ride conversion. You can log into your EasyPay account here. If you need help, call our EasyPay support number.
